

RES. ASSOC. Copy.

MASSEY VICTORY HEIGHTS RESIDENCE ASSOCIATION
THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 2005
GLENBROOK LIBRARY 7 p.m.

Speaker: Jim Hurst, Development Services – City of New Westminster

Two (2) Concerns: Traffic
Development in Victory Heights especially

Zoning: RS-1 east of 6th Street
Zone – space ratio – 50% of lot size
Variances cannot be used to circumvent building code
Zoning bylaw can be rezoned upon looking at conditions of the lot
West End/Kelvin/Cannaught Heights adopted NR-1 zoning

Row houses in 8th Ave strip mall with setback for street parking

How to avoid big box homes

- study
- investigate
- talk to neighbours
- have local discussions
- phone city hall if you have a problem with a spec home

End of speaker time.

Carole: Community Policing

- protection in neighbourhoods
- New Years Eve fireworks – illegal – only on Holloween
- Call police and state problem then give your info later
- Don't give money to hapless door-to-door stories
- Block Watch – looking into updating and reactivating neighbourhoods

Traffic Calming Study 2005

- speedbumps can be purchased at $.42 / ft of frontage over a number of years

Joyce Murray MLA

- spoke regarding new Policing Funding and new Transportation Funding
- Gateway Project – twinning of the #1 Highway and Port Mann Bridge
- Livable Region Coalition good area to investigate

NEW BUSINESS

- new property assessments – should council reduce millrate
- Susan will phone City Hall about this idea
- Set next meeting around this situation

NEXT MEETING FEBRUARY 17, 2005 @ 7 p.m. GLENBROOK LIBRARY